SCHOOLS & MINISTRIES RESPOND WELL TO 10 ULTIMATE TIPS FOR CONFIDENCE

Kuala Lumpur:- Over 100 secondary schools and five ministries have responded to outLOUD Book Drive to Ministries & Educational Institutions under The Great Orange Charity Drive. This is a Social Responsibility To Malaysian Youth & Education Awareness and the 10 Ultimate Tips For Confidence by Ernie Chen were sent to over 300 schools and 24 ministries. The response has been very encouraging as thank you letters were received shortly after the books were sent out by mail.

It is said that confidence, like art, never comes from having all the answers; it comes from being open to all the questions. Sadly though, the concept of asking questions is an alien notion to most Malaysian youths.

The reason for this is simple enough – they lack confidence to express themselves articulately. There are also young people who have no problems asking questions but when they are told to be quiet or not to ask so many question, over time, they will retreat into their shells and many never get an opportunity to be confident enough to speak up or stand up for themselves.

There has been so much said about our youths more often than not, negatively. We at outLOUD Studios Sdn Bhd want to take a proactive stance in addressing this and other concerns through a series of social responsibility campaigns which will run from June until December 2008.

There are three specific age groups we would like to target namely primary school children, teenagers and those about to graduate from universities or colleges. There is a tremendous need for confidence more so in the area of communication and making the right choices that are best for them.
